

The background of the poster is a collage of scenes from the animated film. At the top, a large, glowing yellow moon with dark spots is set against a dark blue night sky with white stars. In the foreground, a character with a large, textured, greenish head and a blue jacket is playing a blue electric guitar. To the right, another character with a similar head is holding a green mug. In the bottom left, a character is playing a saxophone. The setting appears to be a bar or club with brick walls and various musical instruments.
